I will be there.

I have a question, Hoping someone can help me out. I recently opened up a small community art space and cycling boutique on 8th and Valencia. In the year that I have been in this space I have painted several murals, organized several local food drives and several block cleaning sweeps with neighbors in efforts to clean up my community. I am now conflicted with a new homeless encampment housing young drug addicts and dangerously aggressive street walkers who are frightening local communitarians and nearby students walking to and from two local schools. I personally have experienced two break-ins to my business and car.

I researched my local neighborhood council, but have not found any current activity from Westlake South Neighborhood Council. Can someone direct me to an agenda or contact?
